A compact 12V DC power supply for use with Paxton systems, designed to connect to a standard UK mains supply via a switched fused spur connection.

The 998-241 is a 1A 12V dc power supply in a plastic enclosure. This is a low-cost alternative to the boxed backup power supplies, suitable for running small installations with low power requirements such as our standalone range of products; Compact & Switch2.